

Degree students

You're not German, and you'd like to register for a bachelor's, master's or other degree at LMU Munich? Then you've come to the right place! Here are the steps you need to take in order to study at LMU.

Ready to take the next step?

Degree programs vary widely, as do the backgrounds of the applicants. Hence there isn't just one procedure that applies to everyone but various application procedures.

Begin by getting a broad idea of what you'll need to consider when applying and registering before you investigate the details.

Overview

Information on prerequisites, applications, and registration

Applications

All international students are required to apply for a place.

Registration

The final step before studying

Degree programs

Bachelor's or master's degree, doctoral studies and more

Prerequisites

General and specific prerequisites for admission

Learning German

German proficiency and language courses

International Student Guide

From health insurance to cultural tips, this guide covers all the essentials to embrace life in Munich.

International Student Guide

